If the required forms are not attached to this list, please download them from the website of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship at www.immi.gov.au/allforms/health-requirements/ unless you plan to visit an eHealth enabled panel clinic (see below).

Required health assessment(s) for visa applicants:

- outside Australia are conducted by qualified doctors and radiologists nominated by the department. A list of approved immigration panel doctors is available on the website of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) at http://www.immi.gov.au/contacts/panel-doctors/.

Some panel doctors in your country may have access to process the required health assessments using a secure online system called "eHealth". eHealth is the Department's online system for recording, processing and storing the health assessment results for Australian visa applications. We encourage you to use eHealth where available, as it helps the Department to finalise your health results more quickly - with eHealth assessments typically finalised within 48 hours of the panel doctor submitting the results.
